homeschoolers, GED holders, and international students. Applicants may use either the Evergreen or the Common Application.

Application and Admissions Requirements

Test-optional: $50 Application Fee or Fee Waiver request; High School transcripts; and the Application Statement.

Traditional: $50 Application Fee or Fee Waiver request; High School transcripts; and official ACT or SAT exam scores.

Running Start Students

Running Start students should complete the freshmen application (Evergreen or Common). Credit earned with a grade of C or higher will be transferred into Evergreen and 100% of credits applied toward a Bachelor's degree. Students who earn an Associate's Degree through Running Start can expect to graduate Evergreen in two years.

Advanced Placement, International Baccalaureate and Cambridge Exam credits:

Evergreen has updated its policies for AP, IB and Cambridge Exams. All credits are applied toward an Evergreen degree. Credit will be granted for IB exam scores of four or higher: five credit per standard level (SL) exam and nine credits per higher level (HL) exam. IB diploma holders will receive 45 credits.

Nine credits will be granted for any AS or A level Cambridge Exam score of E or higher, however if both an AS and an A level exam are taken credit will be granted for only one. AICE holders will receive 45 credits.

A minimum score of 3 on an AP exam is required to earn credit.

TEST OPTIONAL ADMISSION

Starting Fall 2020 test-optional admission is open to all freshmen applicants including
